Hospital Universitario Virgen Macarena

University Hospital

The Hospital Universitario Virgen de la Macarena is a 1,000-bed teaching hospital located in Seville, in South Spain. Our staff is form by 11 staff pharmacists, 4 hospital pharmacy residents, 10 pharmacy technicians and 4 nurses, as well as pharmacy and technician students.

Areas of activity of the pharmacy:

Between our main activities are compounding (total parenteral nutrition, chemotherapy, sterile and non-sterile preparations), outpatients assessment and dispensing (e.g. HIV, C and B hepatitis, multiple sclerosis, oral chemotherapy, etc.), computerized prescription checking, war rounds, clinical trials monitoring and preparation, pharmacy and therapeutics Committee and clinical research.

Activities offered to the intern:

The student will be able to shadow a pharmacist on all hospital pharmacy areas.

Website: http://sevilla-ihospitales.es/hospital-macarena

Number of internships available per year: 2-3

Duration: 1-3 months

Availability: From September to July, during the academic year.

Language requirements: English and Spanish

Reimbursement: No

Own insurance required: No

Accommodation: Not provided, but the hospital is available to help.