

Seminar 1: Clinical Outcome - Hospital pharmacists as members of the therapeutic drug committee

- know about the process of choosing members of the committee
- be able to know how to create and update a formulary or drug list according to pharmacoeconomic and therapeutic principles
- know about the dissemination of the results of the meetings
- know how to evaluate the adherence to the formulary
- develop a local implementation plan for evolving pharmacy services in support of drugs and therapeutics committees

Seminar 2: Patient SafetyThe role of hospital pharmacists in risk management

- understand the principles and methodology of risk management
- learn about the different tools available to do a risk analysis and how to use them in practice
- understand why the reporting of medication errors is such a critical part of risk management

Last update: 30 June 2014
