

Synergy is EAHP's qualitative and accredited Continuing Education programme tailor made for the needs of today's hospital pharmacists.

The contents of the Synergy programme will be selected and compiled by well-respected professionals within hospital pharmacy to ensure the highest level content and with the intention of helping hospital pharmacists prepare for and deliver cutting edge innovation in service delivery and patient care.

The entire programme is accredited and quality assured to the high standards of the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE).

If you wish to participate or suggest a topic for a Synergy Satellite that addresses key issues and trends in hospital pharmacy practice, please use the following email to contact us: [Jennie.DeGreef\[at\]eahp\[dot\]eu](mailto:Jennie.DeGreef[at]eahp[dot]eu). ^[1]

10 YEARS OF BIOSIMILARS WHAT HAVE WE LEARNED?

SUPPORTED BY AN EDUCATIONAL GRANT FROM AMGEN

Wednesday, 22 March 2017 - 11:30am to 1:00pm
Théâtre Claude Debussy

Back in 2006, the approval by EMA of the first biosimilar (growth hormone) didn't hit many headlines. More than ten years have passed, and the implementation of small molecule biosimilars like epoetin and filgrastim is now a fact in many countries in the EU.
