ABSTRACT

In this masterclass the themes of leadership and management will be explored, in particular the difference between these two concepts.

- Leadership is to do with vision, in particular being able to communicate a vision and getting buy-in, it's about motivating people and inspiring them.
- Management, on the other hand, is to do with goals, targets, staffing, budgeting, performance management and problem solving. Managers build teams and ensure they function efficiently and effectively, whereas leaders inspire them. In a nutshell, 'Management is doing things right; leadership is doing the right things' (Drucker. P).

This masterclass through a series of presentations and workshops that draw from the expertise of both delegates and facilitators will explore themes related to both leadership and management.
