

Affiliation:

Institute of Orthopaedic Surgery "Banjica"

Country:

Serbia

1. Current Status, Position

Nenad Miljkovi? is currently the Head of Hospital Pharmacy Services at the Institute of Orthopaedic Surgery "Banjica". He is also a member of Institute's Drug and Therapeutics Committee. Nenad is also responsible for International cooperation on behalf of Pharmaceutical Association of Serbia, Hospital Pharmacy Section, including COST Action 15105-European Medicines Shortages Research Network.

2. Education

Nenad Miljkovi? studied Pharmacy at the University of Belgrade, where he graduated in 2004 and subsequently specialised in clinical pharmacy in 2014. In 2012, Nenad obtained a Dual Master Degree in European Public Health at the University of Sheffield in the UK, and at the University Sorbonne Paris Cite in France.

3. Research Area

Nenad Miljkovi?'s research focuses on pharmacy education and healthcare services, patient adherence to osteoporosis medications, medicines shortages including patient clinical needs assessment and prospective risk evaluation.

Conflict of interest: None

Last update: 4 June 2018
