To everyone in the Departament of Clinical Hematology.

The new oral antineoplastic drugs have demonstrated efficacy and safety in Clinical Trials. However, possible adverse effects can be observed. It is important the health professionals know the drug adverse effects, how to handle them and to carry out a close follow-up of the patient. In the event of any suspicion, it is important to notify the Official Organizations.

Acknowledgements
To everyone in the Departament of Clinical Hematology.

23rd Congress of the EAPH. Gothenburg, Sweden. 21st – 23rd March 2018 Contact: mgalvez@fhalcorcon.es